APPROPRIATION FOR FARM AGENT ASKED

Civic Directors Before
Board of Revenue
For Demonstrator

WAY SOUGHT TO RAISE THE FUND

Sentiment Now Seems To Favor Plan Of Establishment

Frustrated in their attempt to secure an appropriation from the county board of revenue sufficient to insure the establishment of a home demonstration department for Morgan county, directors of the Albany-Decatur Chamber of Commerce are to appear before a full meeting of the county board this afternoon and go fully into the merits of the proposition.

J. W. Clifton, president of the chamber, and who from the first mention of the possibility of a home demonstration department for the county has been one of its most ardent supporters, stated this morning that every one of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce had promised to appear before the board this afternoon. It will be shown that this county will receive a $1,600 donation from the state and federal governments for a department provided as much as $1,000 it put up for the same purpose.

The fact that with few exceptions every progressive county in the state is already employing a farm demonstration agent, will be brought to the attention of the board members. Sentiment is strong for the new department. Nothing, it is believed, will and in the way of favorable action by the board, unless it develops that there is no reasonable way to raise the desired $1,000.

LIGHTNING STRIKES SEVERAL BUILDINGS

Some property damage was done and considerable excitement caused by late Saturday by an electric storm, which was accompanied by a heavy downpour of rain. The Albany department was twice called out to put out the flames caused by the lightning.

The greatest property damage reported was to the home of Herman Long, 1728, Fifth avenue, South Albany. The kitchen of his house was rick down and destroyed by the lightning. The screams of members of the family of Mr. Long attracted notice. The stroke of lightning against the spire of the Central Baptist church caused the most excitement, and the fire department was called to that structure directly after its tip to the Long residence.

The presence of fire in the church for the storm—a circumstance known to the people generally, when the lightning stroke came—caused greater alarm for the safety of the church than was due, for close examination after the storm failed to reveal any material damage to the church. The lightning about the steeple, while very spectacular, evidently issued directly into the ground and did the church building no harm. The lightning also struck the roof of the house of Mr. Newsome, located at the corner of Third avenue, south, near the new Albany school building, but did small damage. On Fourth avenue, West Albany, the chimney of the house of Ollie Draper was destroyed either by lightning or the high winds. No one was hurt during the violent storm, so far as is known.

BAND TO REHEARSE

The rehearsal of the Albany-Decatur concert band will be held tonight at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, with Director H. B. Marston in charge. The attendance of every member is expected.

Death of Schoolboy Unsolved

Miss Jennie Barker.

Friends of Kent, Conn., and state officials, are endeavoring to clear up the mysterious death of Fred Carter, a 19-year-old graduate of the Kent High School. His body was found in the Housatonic River with a load of gunshot in his chest. Mystery was added to the death when it was discovered the shot had penetrated his inner garments but not his coat and shirt, though both were on him. The boy had been adopted by a family, both members of which now are dead and he has since lived with Miss Jennie Barker, also an inmate in the same family. Young Carter was said to be completely under Miss Barker's domination.

Skilled Workers Seek Wage Scale Boost
Effective Now

By Associated Press

FLORENCE, Ala., May 14.—At a mass meeting, which was attended by more than 800 people, the wage committee, representing the workmen at Wilson Dam, which returned from Washington yesterday, made its report last night.

The report made by Messrs. J. S. Acton, W. E. King, and J. M. Doyle, representing the skilled trades at Wilson Dam, was to the effect that General Lansing H. Beach, chief of the United States Engineers, had promised them an immediate adjustment of the wage scales in effect at the dam. The scale will be adjusted upward for all skilled trades.

Col. W. J. Barden, commanding officer at Wilson Dam, stated this morning that he had received no instructions from General Beach as to the promised adjustment and until instructions were received the present scale would continue.

Work proceeded as usual this morning.

Body Of Officer Is Found Monday

(Associated Press.)

CLEVELAND, O., May 14.—The body of Patrolman Dennis Griffin, kidnapped by a man he had arrested early Friday morning, was found this afternoon 300 feet from where the remnants of his charred clothing had been discovered yesterday.

Griffin had been shot twice through the head and once in the abdomen. Police say any one of the shots would have killed him. His body was stripped of all clothing. The body was found buried in a grave not more than two feet deep.

MOTHERS HONORED AT LOCAL CHURCHES

Services Draw Large Crowds At Both The Services of Day

UNIQUE PROGRAM AT FIRST BAPTIST

Mrs. J. H. Scoggin Acts
As Representative Of Motherhood

The Mothers' Day exercises of the Twin Cities Sunday morning and Sunday night were largely attended. Inspiring messages were delivered by the pastors—and the special music was greatly enjoyed.

The local pulpits were occupied by the regular pastors except that Dr. S. H. Bennett, of Montgomery, preached at the morning hour for Dr. C. C. Davidson, who was at Leighton at that time, to deliver the commencement sermon for the high school there.

Also the pulpit of Dr. L. F. Goodwin was occupied by Dr. Thomas Husk, pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Athens.

In some cases the churches confined their Mothers' Day celebration to their Sunday schools. This was the case at the Central Baptist Church, owing to the morning church service being given over to baptismal service at the church.

Sunday night Dr. Reaves, the pastor of this church, preached on "Raising a Life," basing his discourse on the life and reign of wicked King Ahab. A male quartette rendered special music at the evening service.

East Albany Church Has Oldest Mother.

In connection with the Mothers' Day celebration at the East Albany Baptist Church, the pastor, Rev. S. D. Monroe, held an old people's service and asked that the oldest people in the community worship with his congregation. When the call was made for the oldest mother present at this church, Mrs. J. P. H. Scoggin, mother of Mrs. W. L. Hatchet, was found to have won that distinction. Mrs. Scoggin is close to her eightieth birthday. She was escorted to the front seat by two young ladies, while a third presented her with a beautiful bouquet.

Living up to his reputation for thoughtfulness, Dr. James A. Duncan, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Decatur, preached not only on the place and influence of mothers, but on the place and influence of fathers as well. Dr. Duncan's Sunday night sermon was entitled "A Modern Father." The discourse dwelt upon the importance of fathers acting the part of true fathers to their sons, and the modern world was pictured by the speaker as a place in which it took not only every mother can do, but all a father can do as well to plant the footsteps of the young in the straight and narrow path and to keep them there.

One Divorce Granted For Every Fifth Marriage in Chicago in Past 3 Months

(Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, May 14.—One divorce has been granted for every five marriage licenses issued in Chicago during the first three months of this year, and in the past ten years the ratio of divorces to marriages has nearly doubled, figures compiled here today indicate.

Judges ascribe the increasing number of marriage dissolutions to the changing economic conditions. Statistics show divorces have doubled in the last eight years, while marriages have increased one-eighth. Some of the reasons for divorce advanced by the judges are:

Trolley Sends Six To Death in River

(Associated Press.)

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., May 14.—Six persons, three men and two women, were drowned last night in the Mississippi river at Campbell's Island, just east of this city, when they jumped from a trestle to avoid being struck by a street car, control of which had been lost.

The young people were walking back to East Moline, after having attended a dance at the island. Only one body has been recovered.

Buccaneers Spread Into Small Parties And Terrorize Crew

(Associated Press.)

HONG KONG, May 14.—European passengers were among those terrorized and robbed when the Chinese steamer Taishun was seized near Swatow Saturday by pirates, who overpowered the crew, sailed the ship for nearly 24 hours at night without lights and finally left her at the mouth of a small creek, transferring to a junk boat valued at $60,000.

The Taishun, which was bound from Hongkong to Shanghai returned to Hongkong yesterday afternoon. The chief officer, wounded in the forearm by a pirate, was taken to a hospital.

Most of the passengers have lost all their money and personal effects. The vessel's cargo, a valuable one, was not disturbed.

The steamer, which registered 2,000 tons, left Hongkong with more than 100 passengers. The pirate passengers numbered about 40.

When a point near Sawtow was reached the buccaneers had spread into small parties, prearranged and worked suddenly and systematically, and soon had the ship at their mercy.

Tax Sale Is Held At The Courthouse

The annual sale of such property as the county authorities have advertised for public auction because of failure of owners to pay the taxes thereon, occurred at the courthouse door this morning, beginning at 10 o'clock. Quite a large crowd of those interested in redeeming or buying the property put on sale was in attendance.

It was stated by one prominent real estate man that only about one-third as much property was sold "under the hammer" as usual—a fact taken to mean that more prosperous conditions have obtained in the county for the past year than usual.

of commerce, industry and business. Too much jazz, too much cabaret and liquor totting.

Ultra sophistication of the rising generation.

Tendency of young married couples to live with their parents, thus becoming susceptible to their influence.

Too little religion in the home.

Poor cooking, resulting from woman's desire to leave the home-fires for a business career and makeshift delicatessen dinners.

Economic marriages, whereby the husband and wife work, the figures indicate, are a success as the principals rarely seek dissolution of the matrimonial bonds.

EDUCATORS' LIVES EXTOLLED AT MEET

FORMER PUPILS MEET TOGETHER

Pay Tributes To Late
Captain Freeman and Professor Nash

The carefully kept records of T. L. Baker, secretary of the meeting held in Hartselle Saturday in honor of two of this country's most distinguished men of the past, Capt. Z. T. Freeman and Prof. Jesse G. Nash, show that for the historic interest and for expression of exalted sentiment seldom has a greater meeting been held in Morgan County.

Near the close of the meeting, which was an all-day affair with dinner on the city school grounds, the meetings were held in the school auditorium—a permanent organization was formed to perpetuate the memory of Captain Freeman and Professor Nash.

The president of the new association is Prof. J. C. Tidwell and the secretary is T. L. Baker.

On motion of ex-Lieutenant Governor Nathan L. Miller, who was one of the chief speakers of the day, telegrams were sent to F. W. Freeman, at Topeka, Kan., and to Prof. A. Z. Nash, at Sherman, Tex., sons respectively of Captain Freeman and Professor Nash. The wire to Mr. Freeman, now a prominent banker of Topeka, was as follows: "Your telegram of greeting was warmly received by students gathered here in honor of your illustrious father and his noble work. Would have been happy to have had you and your mother with us."

M. V. Henry of Birmingham, Rev. J. L. Brittain of Birmingham and G. G. Freeman of Danville signed the telegram. A similar message was sent to Professor Nash, now head of a women's college at Sherman, Tex., established by his father, the late Professor Nash, of Morgan County. This message was signed by Gov. N. L. Miller, T. L. Baker and Mrs. J. L. Brittain.

The telegram of Mr. Freeman was as follows:

"Topeka, Kan., May 11, 1923. "Prof. J. C. Tidwell, Hartselle, Ala.—"I often regret that my trail does not at least occasionally lead me back to old Morgan County. Particularly would my mother and I enjoy being with the friends of my father tomorrow. We sure retain affectionate memories of our native state and friends of earlier days, and deeply appreciate the gathering in his memory of those whom his works and teachings were helpful and inspiring. Greetings. "Frederick William Freeman."

The meeting was opened with prayer at 10 o'clock by Rev. Brittain, after which a temporary chairman, Prof. J. C. Tidwell, stated the object of the meeting. Professor Tidwell first introduced Capt. A. E. Hewlett, of Mississippi, and Capt. M. R. Mahan, of Hartselle, a pupil of Captain Freeman when that teacher had a school at Somerville, the old capital of Morgan County.

Captain Mahan, although in his 89th year, spoke clearly and to the point. He had an old catalogue used by Captain Freeman at Somerville, with 126 pupils' names in it. Captain Mahan said that as far as he knew only two of that number had "ever disgraced humanity." Hon. M. V. Henry, a pupil of Nash and Freeman, and an ex-Confederate soldier and the present treasurer of Jefferson, was next introduced. Mr. Henry and Rev. J. L. Brittain once managed a school in Birmingham. Mr. Henry said that it made him sad to think of the many now dead who used to attend the school taught by Messrs. Freeman and Nash. In the last part of his address this speaker deplored the lack of discipline in our modern schools.

Miller Pays High Tributes. Former Lieut.-Gov. H. L. Miller followed Mr. Henry and paid an eloquent tribute to the memory of the future prominent citizen was but a

FIGHT WAGED ON "SOIL POLLUTION"

Health Official Urges
Full Co-operation In Department's Work

In a recent statement on "Soil Pollution," D. H. C. McRee, county health officer, said in part: "We have one case of typhoid fever in our community, if there is another in the county it has not been reported to this office. This case was positively diagnosed in the laboratory, three specimens of blood being examined at one and two-day intervals until the third test, which proved to be positive, the first two being negative.

"This case was a little boy of 10 years, in a family composed of father, mother and four children, the patient being the oldest of the children.

"The mother and three children were given anti-typhoid inoculations, the father had had an attack and didn't take the inoculation.

"At the time of the visit for the inoculations, an investigation began. The length of time living in present location; water supply; milk supply; visits and possible exposures. The water supply was our city water, which we know to be pure, and was at the time of the infection.

"The milk, for an indefinite time, came from a certain dairy, the name given, in the original container left at the laboratory. This proved to be negative. There was a negro helper at this dairy at this time, who was discharged because he was filthy while milking and handling the milk. His name and possible whereabouts were taken and a search made for him, which was unsuccessful. We thought it possible he was a carrier and wanted to work him out. Failing to find him, and having another clue, rested on the negro, and began on this one which proved to be the right one; that of exposure and visiting. It developed that on several occasions the family visited the home of a relative and used the water out of a well to drink. A specimen of this water was bacteriologically analyzed and proved to be positive. We then got busy in condemnation proceedings against said well.

"Using this for a perfectly good reason, we hope to sanitize this whole section, beginning Monday, May 14. "By sanitize we mean to get rid of all surface toilets, this being the way

BIG SECTION SWEEP; HUNDREDS INJURED

Communication Cut Off

RELIEF PARTIES ARE SENT OUT

Eight Bodies Recovered
Already, Report From Colorado City

(Associated Press.)

BIG SPRINGS, Tex., May 14.—Fifty persons were killed and about 100 injured, three miles from Colorado, Tex., when a tornado swept this section, according to meager and unconfirmed reports telephoned here this morning.

Since this news was received communication has been cut off due to damage to telephone and telegraph lines.

The worst damage is 40 miles from Big Springs, it was reported. It is believed that damage to crops and cattle is heavy, and the loss to life is heavier in the country districts than in the town of Colorado, according to the unconfirmed report.

Relief parties left here in automobiles this morning.

(Associated Press.)

COLORADO CITY, Tex., May 14.—Eight bodies of persons killed in a tornado near here early this morning have been brought to Colorado City and it was reported that several more bodies are on the way here.

Twelve persons have been counted dead.

Persons doing relief work reported dead and injured being found at almost every scattered farm and ranch dwelling for miles southeast of here.

"We have eight bodies here and more are coming. Our workers have located 12 persons whose bodies were found outside the wreckage," said J. H. Green, chairman of Red Cross workers here.

"The injured probably will reach 100 and probably as many as 80 are killed."

Doctors and nurses from a dozen nearby towns have been appealed to and are searching in the devastated area, covering many sections of grazing plains for the dead and injured.

Pythians Will Hear Plans for Home

A number of prominent Pythians will gather in Montgomery Tuesday, according to Past Grand Chancellor W. H. Weakley, of Huntsville, who passed through the Twin Cities today on his way to the state capital.

Mr. Weakley stated that he understood Grand Chancellor T. M. Dix would attend the Montgomery meeting, the object of which is to discuss certain proposals made to the Pythian Home commission of which Mr. Weakley is a member, relative to the location of the proposed state home of the Pythian order.

Mr. Weakley stated that the annual meeting of Alabama Pythians would open in Montgomery May 23 and continue two days. He added that he was in hopes as much as $50,000 would be subscribed for the erection of the home before the state meeting closed.

State Guard Will Camp Next Month

The annual encampment for state guard troops will be held at Montgomery June 3-8 inclusive, according to announcement of Capt. R. D. Burleson made this morning. Captain Burleson said that a number of the members of Troop "C," 109th Cavalry, of Morgan County, would attend the Montgomery meeting, including himself, as captain of the troop, and F. E. Burleson, its first lieutenant.

Captain Burleson stated that the Montgomery gathering was a short term "a military school," and that members of many of the state guard organizations would attend it.

NEGROES DIE FAST IN NORTHERN STATES.

Prof. Walter F. Wilcox of Cornell University, a recognized authority on negro statistics and a dependable, clear-sighted analyst of negro problems, says that the negro is dying at a rate in northern cities that can but forecast the utter extinction of the race in those latitudes. The only deduction derived from Prof. Wilcox's deadly array of figures, which he gathered from an exhaustive study of the facts, is that if the negro wants to live, let him remain in the congenial habitat which nature has provided for him in the South.

Then census figures compiled by Prof. Wilcox show in New England there are 135 deaths among the negroes to 100 births. In New York six negroes die to every one born; in Pennsylvania there are 3 deaths to one born; in Pennsylvania there are 30 deaths to one birth; in Michigan the rate is 17 deaths to one birth, and in Minnesota 65 negroes die where one is born. At such rates as these how long can the negro population in the North, New England and the West survive? With the deaths outnumbering the births at a rate of from five to 65, the matter of calculating the end is not a difficult one.

The figures are not gotten up for "Southern consumption," or with a purpose to check a tendency among an element of Southern negroes to move north. There can be no question of the accuracy of the statements, for they are derived from the census reports and are prepared by a careful statistician. The disclosures which impress are that in the New England states, and the four states already named, 14 negroes die to one born. In the Southern states, including the District of Columbia, where there is an unfavorable ratio, there are 79 deaths to 100 births. In the Carolinas, Georgia and Alabama, the death rate among the negroes is just a little in excess of the whites.

In North Carolina 100 negroes are born where 62 die. In South Carolina and Georgia the ratio is 59 deaths to 100 births; in Alabama the rate is 57 to 100, which is almost as favorable as that of the whites in the rural sections.

The irrefutable figures show that in every one of the northern states negro deaths outnumber births, while in the southern states it is just the other way. The northern climate is a destructive factor working against the negro's longevity.

In 1790, when the first census was taken, the negroes constituted one-fifth of the country's population.

In 1920 it was one-tenth. This notable reduction in growth is largely due to the negro's dispersion over the United States. The moral of it all is if the negro wants to live long he should stick to the rural sections of the South. Better a home in the South with plenty of hog and hominy and the average human span, than a "job" in the North for a few dollars a day and a hole in the ground for permanency.—Selma Times-Journal.

ALUMNAE DAY.
The alumnae day at Athens College will be celebrated Monday, May 21. It has been the custom for several years for graduates of the College to come back and renew the ties of friendship which have bound them together and to take into their alumnae association the class which is graduating from the college. On this occasion the association is planning among other attractive features for the day, a luncheon at 1 o'clock. Mrs. R. H. Richardson, Jr., president of the association, reports that a large number of the alumnae have registered with her that they will be present.

Winter is sitting in the lap of Spring and seems determined to stay there.

SOME OF THE RESULTS OF PROHIBITION.

One hundred and seventy-seven thousand seven hundred and ninety saloons out of business.

Ten hundred and ninety breweries.

Two hundred and thirty-five distilleries.

One hundred and thirty thousand gallons of whiskey withdrawn as against 12,500,000 previously.

Sixteen million, six hundred and fifty-five thousand one hundred and twenty-five bushels of grain saved—formerly used for distilled liquor.

One billion nine hundred and nine million nine hundred and ninety-eight thousand, four hundred and seventy-five pounds food material saved—formerly used in making fermented liquor.

Three hundred and thirty-three millions three hundred and thirty-six thousand dollars increase in savings banks deposits.

One hundred and seventy-three thousand nine hundred and thirty-three increase in depositors.

Life insurance companies report big increases.

Many private institutions for taking care of drunkards closed.

In 1917 deaths from alcoholism in New York City were 560; in 1919, 119 deaths. Arrests for drunkenness decreased 50 per cent.

TIDE IS RUNNING STRONG FOR SUCCESS OF HOSPITAL CAMPAIGN

There is a right tide to take in the matter of charity campaigns, as well as in human destiny, and now we are upon the "full tide of opportunity" as regards the success of the present campaign for completing the Benevolent Hospital fund up to $5,000.

A lump sum of $1,500 is already in hand—or subscribed by reliable people, which is the same thing. This amount reduces the sum due to $3,500. And a goodly share of the $3,500 has been pledged, according to reports from the committees now working in the hospital financial campaign.

By no means should the goal be missed unless it is over shot. But every consideration of duty and good business requires that not less than the needed $3,500 be secured before there is any let up in the present campaign.

It might be suggested there are better times ahead—more prosperous times. There may be, and doubtless business will improve day by day, but delays are dangerous things always, and especially when a great project like clearing the Benevolent Hospital is at stake.

It is encouraging that the money has been pledged to insure the continued operation of the Cottage Home Infirmary. Now for a strong, swift pull for wiping out the last dollar of indebtedness on the Benevolent Hospital, and for providing some money for equipping the hospital with all the modern requirements for such institutions.

HELPING FIND EACH OTHER TASKS.

Life is made or marred by a number of things, but work is one of the biggest factors in making or breaking a life. It is generally accepted as true that education and training should fit their possessors for the largest measure of usefulness and satisfaction. Those who have found their work are said to feel a certain joy, and pleasure and satisfaction in performing it. Such as a good teacher feels when imparting knowledge. Such as the shoe maker feels at his last, the mechanic at his machine, the steel worker in placing steel beams high up in great buildings; the artist with his brush, the poet composing verses, and so on.

But our knowledge of ourselves and the teacher's knowledge of the human material with which he or she deals—is not yet sufficient to teach wherein "kind nature meant us to excel." Many young people grow to maturity and enter old age and die never knowing for what they were "cut out."

In some future age when human knowledge is more complete, there will come a time when round pegs will be fitted into round holes, etc., but for the present, about all that can be done is to keep on trying and studying for the thing that fits. No doubt the ideal in education is being approached, but the progress made is very slow indeed. It will take the exercise not only of the "best minds" but the earnest cooperation of all people in all stations of life to ever get a system of education that will fit the human system. In the finding of the true and best work for all, all can and should take a part.

Just as it is the greatest disservice possible to prevent the finding of the "tasks of destiny" for others, on the other hand it is one of the greatest services to the individual and to the race to help one and all to come into his or her own regarding the right work, the right task, the one that brings the best results and the most satisfaction and happiness.

MOBILE WINS NEXT T. P. A. CONVENTION

The local delegation to the Selma convention of the State T. P. A., composed of Messrs. Pointer, Lovin, Hefner, Brock and Masterson, have returned home sadder but wiser on the question of securing large annual conventions, drawn from their experience in seeking to land the 1924 convention of the T. P. A. for the Twin Cities.

When the local men got to Selma, according to Mr. Hefner, somebody had already "fixed things" until Albany and Decatur had not a chance to land the coveted prize. Mobile was a winner from the start, and only one ballot was taken, when the local delegates gave up the fight. The claims of the Twin Cities for the next convention were presented in a speech by John F. Lovin, who also presented resolutions sent from here asking for the next convention of the T. P. A.

Educator's Lives
Ertolled at Meeting

preceptors of his early days when the "beardless youth" at Danville—some 50-odd years ago. Mr. Miller reminded the people assembled that Danville's support to Nash and Freeman made their great work prominent.

He mentioned Esquire J. P. Speake, father of John Henry Clay Speake and Judge Daniel Webster Speake, who both died as circuit court judges in Morgan County. He said Esquire Speake preceded Captain Freeman at the great Danville academy. The most impressive part of Governor Miller's address was where he described the devotional exercises as conducted by Captain Freeman. He said that educator read a chapter in the Bible every school day, followed it with prayer, and that he then had the pupils to give Scripture quotations and then Captain Freeman would comment on the verses. Governor Miller also referred to the late Nathan Miller's connection with the Danville school, who was the father of the speaker. The speaker said that his memory of the famous school at Danville; his old home, was one of the things that caused him to frame a bill when he was in the State Senate requiring that every county have a high school.

When Rev. J. L. Brittain, of West End, Birmingham, was called for the third speech, that veteran preacher asked the audience to join him in singing "Jesus, Lover of My Soul." T. L. Baker, the secretary of the meeting, said Rev. Brittain was one of the best language students of Professor Nash, and was especially proficient in French. Rev. Brittain spoke especially of the religious influence of Captain Freeman and Professor Nash. The aged minister closed his address with the words of Holme's "Chambered Nautilus." "But thee more stately mansions, O my soul; as the swift seasons roll—leave thy low vaulted past—let each mansion, nobler than the last, shut thee from Heaven with some more vast till though at length are free leaving thy outgrown shell by life's unresting sea."

The following prominent women of Morgan County were pupils of Messrs.

Freeman and Nash, and spoke following Rev. Brittain: Mrs. J. C. Tidwell, Mrs. W. A. Barcliff and Mrs. E. C. Hardwick. These speakers paid glowing tributes to Mrs. Jesse G. Nash, who helped her husband teach, and they told their hearts that the power and influence of Mrs. Nash was second to none at the Danville academy.

Prof. E. L. Hayes, county superintendent of education, made the last speech before the basket picnic was served on the lawn of the school grounds. Following the dinner the two principal foods of which were country ham and fried chicken, the most dramatic time of the whole gathering was during the speech of Mrs. Barcliff, who recited the well-known poem, "Over the Hills to the Poorhouse," just as she did at Danville 40 years ago, and many in the audience who heard her speak at that time recognized the speech and the same manner of the speaker, and were moved first to applause and then to tears.

At the opening of the afternoon session Professor Tidwell called on T. L. Baker, the secretary, stating that he was a former pupil of Professor Nash. Mr. Baker said that while he went only to Nash and not to Captain Freeman, that as a small boy he knew of Freeman and had heard his mother say that Captain Freeman's religious influence caused many of his students to accept Christianity and that a number of them afterwards became ministers of the gospel. Mr. Baker, in behalf of the association, thanked Professor Tidwell for his great service in originating and carrying out the idea of suitable recognition of Messrs. Freeman and Nash. R. A. Kirkland, of Albany-Decatur, who was a carpenter for Captain Freeman, and who also went to school to that educator, spoke in the highest terms of the Danville school of the long ago.

Mrs. N. L. Miller, when called on, said that while she had not been privileged to work with the educators at the Danville school, that she had the privilege of being associated with one of the pupils of the school for some time and enjoyed the association.

One of the most enjoyable of all the speeches was that of Mrs. Novia Brittain, wife of Rev. J. L. Brittain. Mrs. Brittain said that the joy of meeting with her old schoolmates was not unmixed with pain, because death had of those served at Danville so long taken so many away. The speaker referred to the dinner as reminding her ago. She closed by saying that the feast of good things and of good ideas, she believed, was emblematic of the love feasts beyond the grave.

Many people from all parts of the county were present at the meeting. Those from Birmingham were: Rev. and Mrs. Brittain, Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Miller, M. V. Henry, Jodie H. Hargrove and William Baker Copeland, all of whom took the later afternoon train for Birmingham.

Mrs. Stewart Gives
Advice To The Weak

Tells How Splendidly Tanlac Built Her Up After Severe Attack and Recommends it to Others. "Just Grand," She States.

Mrs. Jennie Stewart, residing at 214 Society street, Albany, Ga., adds her voice to the thousands who have already endorsed the famous Tanlac treatment.

"I have experienced such splendid results from Tanlac myself," says Mrs. Stewart, "that I don't hesitate to recommend it to anyone needing something to build them up. I suffered from a general run-down condition, and, having heard of Tanlac, decided to try it. This was just after I had gotten out of bed from a serious attack of the shingles and was, of course, in an extremely weak and nervous condition.

"Being advised I had better do something to stimulate my digestive organs, I started taking Tanlac, and in a very brief time could see that my system was deriving considerable benefit, as I was aware of a decided gain in strength. I have taken several bottles at intervals since, and am now active all the time and able to do whatever housework comes to hand. In fact, I believe I am enjoying better health than the average woman of my age. If my system ever needs toning up again I am going to take Tanlac—it's just grand."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Take no substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold. —Adv.
